

A grand reception for Shilpa in London

Written by Radhika

Thursday, 07 January 2010 06:11 -

It's been two months since Bollywood actress Shilpa Shetty got married to Raj Kundra but there seems to be no end to the wedding celebrations. A star struck British MP Keith Vaz hosted a reception for Shilpa and Raj in the House of Commons in London.

Shilpa Shetty whose career got a second lease of life with her appearance on Big Brother in the UK said she was thrilled that the honeymoon didn't seem to end.

"We are celebrating our wedding and the honeymoon just continues. I am very happy," Shilpa said.

Much excited, the actress said that she should have gotten "married earlier".

Shilpa also said earlier, "The House of Commons reception is being thrown for Raj and me by British MP Keith Vaz who's a dear friend of ours."

Speaking from London after her majestic Mediterranean cruise with her husband and their families, Shilpa had said, "I don't know why I didn't get married earlier! Marriage is wonderful when the man whom you marry is good, and mine is wonderful! Touch wood, I'm loving every minute of the marriage."

Now Shilpa can't wait to get back to Mumbai on Jan 8. "I'm missing Mumbai and can't wait to get back." source : NDTV