Katrina Kaif is all set to break the myth of a glam doll and try her hand at a serious role with 'Raajneeti', director Prakash Jha's latest political offering. Her de-glam look, draped in a sari in the promos of the movie has already become the talk of the town. Though I mostly enjoy doing fun, romance filled commercial films, after hearing the script I decided not to be prejudiced about it and give it a try. It is nothing like breaking a mould but I am an actor and performing varied roles makes me feel excited." she speaks about her movie 'Rajneeti'.

When asked about the kinda relationship she shares with peers,

She tells, "Truly speaking, we share a very tight space while working together but we do exchange conversations. I do not have very close friendship with anyone as such. I know Preity Zinta, I have met Priyanka (Chopra) once at Yash Raj Films and we did discuss a few things. I have shared quite some good moments with Kareena Kapoor.

When asked about marriage then she says, "Yes, I am very friendly to the Khan family. I think I may have just dreamt that I will be getting married to Salman in two years and hence said that. But well, on a serious note, marriage will happen, but when, that is yet not decided."

Well, Katz nice to know that you become bold in front of media.
